BRETHREN BOOK AND TRACT COMMITTEE,
ASHLAND, OHIO.

Notes and Comments.

REMEMBER the date of National Conference—September 3.

THE K. C. of Milledgeville, Ill., contribute $2.00 for the Book and Tract Work.

BROTHER Wampler reports one baptism and one applicant in the Manor congregation.

BROTHER C. Forney reports three baptisms at Brooklyn, Iowa, Sabbath morning after regular services.

THE Garwin congregation, three and one half miles south east of Garwin, Iowa, will begin a series of meetings, September 8, to be conducted by sister Clara Flora of Dallas Center.

THE program for the Illiokota Convention reached us one day too late for insertion in this issue. It will appear next week. The Conference is to be held at Brooklyn, Iowa, Sept. 24-26, 1895.

BROTHER Ridenour, in this issue gives his view as to how the Communion bread should be taken. To us, it is wholly a matter of indifference, and with each one it must remain a matter of mere opinion. Whether the twelve ate the bread immediately as it was given to them, no one knows, and at best we can but conjecture. It belongs to the non-essentials.

THE price of the EVANGELIST from now to the end of the year is fifty cents. If your subscription has expired, renew at once. Can you not induce your neighbor to subscribe at the very small sum of fifty cents? Try it.

BROTHER Hiram Faidley of Burr Oak, Kansas, expects to devote much of his time during the fall and winter to active work in the ministry. He announces his services free to isolated churches and members. Write to him.

THE meeting in the Manor congregation, Indiana county, Pa., by Brother Wampler, closed with a pleasant Communion service, good interest, four additions by confession and baptism and the membership much revived.

WHY is it that so many Sunday-schools expect us to send bills the second, or even the third time? It costs this office over $100 a year to make its collections, including EVANGELIST subscriptions. Why not save this money? Do you owe us anything? Please remit.

BROTHER Walter Clark of Dowagiac, Mich., invites a general gathering of forces for their coming Conference in the Michigan District. Brethren Calvert, Furry, Bemenderfer, Summers, Perry, Rench, Winey, and all others interested are especially invited to be present.

BROTHER J. F. Koontz of Conemaugh, Pa., writes: "There will be two and possibly three delegates from this place to attend the National Conference. I will be one of that number." That is the way to say it, brother. We could wish that at least 500 others would say the same thing.

THE College Chapel has undergone thorough repair; new paper on the walls and ceiling, fresh paint on the wood work, new pulpit furniture and pews, together with other improvements, make the chapel a very comfortable and pleasant place of worship.

WHEN you arrive at Ashland do not hurry away from the depot. There will be a committee there to take care of you.

SHOULD the conference continue over Sabbath, we are expected to supply all the pulpits in town. Ministers please take notice.

THE A. I. C. Society of the Ashland City church has arranged with Rev. J. D. McFaden to deliver one of his popular lectures, some evening during the conference week. A small admission fee will be charged.

WE have on our table a copy of the Industrial Edition of The Ashland Gazette, just issued by the Ashland Printing Company. It contains thirty-six pages, including cover, 13½ x 10½, conveniently bound, printed on extra quality paper, from good, clear type, beautifully illustrated, and the mechanical work, artistically and tastefully executed. It gives a history of the rise and progress of the principal industries of Ashland, biographies of its prominent men, and other matter of importance. Every page is embellished with fine half-tone cuts. Ashland University is given almost two pages with six cuts. The edition is a credit to our town and every citizen in the community should have a copy. Price 10 cents.
